

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ وَسَلِّمْ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى سَيِّدِنَا مُحَمَّدٍ

Today, 10 April, is a very important day in the history of Pakistan, but I would like to take you back many years, to 16 April 1938, when Quaid e Azam Mohammad Ali Jinnah, in front of whose picture we are sat today, he said, Allah forgive any errors, along the lines of:

“A Muslim is not born to give up, if he is forced to be enslaved, he will become Babar, he will emerge as Sultan Tipu, he will happily embrace martyrdom, but he will not accept slavery”

(Quaid e Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah)

And I am happy and proud, that the man I am stood with, whose name is Imran Khan, sacrificed his government but did not accept slavery. Today, there is happiness on your faces, may Allah keep you happy. Today, in the same way I fulfilled my duty on my first day, as a soldier of Imran Khan, and a servant of the state of Pakistan, and the government of Pakistan, today my duty is completed.

Today is leaving many faces happy, but it is also leaving behind many questions. History is leaving a question behind for Molana Fazl-ur-Rehman. What kind of agent was this person, this brave and courageous man, who he accused of being an agent of the Jewish and America's agencies. What kind of agent is he, whom America tried so hard to remove?

I have a pen in my hand, light in my mind

I have a pen in my hand, light in my mind

What can erase the frost of oppression?

I am rising, you are about to set

(Habib Jalib)

Temporary failure is not a substitute for defeat.

We are all Muslims, and our history is full to the brim. I don't wish to compare to anyone, we are all here and this is my 9th year in parliament, but remember one thing.

In the battlefield of Karbala, Hazrat Imam Hussain RA faced temporary defeat, but he is still remembered today. We all need to walk on the footsteps of Imam Hussain رضي الله عنه.

You must tolerate me as I also tolerated your cheers and happiness.

And we are all followers of Imam Hussain رضي الله عنه, and this message is for every person who is a follower of freedom, who is against slavery.

There was a wish in your heart, that Imran Khan's government ends. My leader will return once again. In Sha Allah Imran Khan will return once again. He will return from the strength of the population, he will return with two-thirds (of the vote). Have some tolerance, have some patience.

What is Imran Khan's sin? (Addressing Bilawal Bhutto) The sin of Imran Khan, is that when your grandfather Zulfikar Ali Bhutto gathered the Muslim Ummah here in Islamabad years ago, he gathered them once, but my leader Imran Khan Sahab gathered them twice in 2 months, by the grace of Allah Almighty.

Your laughter will not lessen my spirits, there are millions of people behind me, there are millions of people behind my leader, and we are not enemies, we will build Pakistan together, but we do not agree with your methods.

Time will tell, as to who the real lion is. Keep your words to yourself.

وَقُولُوا لِلنَّاسِ حُسْنًا (2:83)

“And speak good words to people”

My upbringing is not as such (that I would speak badly like you).

Imran Khan said that we will form a Muslim block, Imran Khan spoke of a Muslim block, this is his sin, Imran Khan spoke of an independent foreign policy, this is his sin.

I often say that Russia is just an excuse, sir, Russia is just an excuse, Imran Khan is the target.

Imran Khan's sin is that while he was Prime Minister of Pakistan, he spoke about the finality of Prophethood, he spoke about an Islamic Ummah, he spoke about the constitution of Madinah. Imran Khan's sin is that he stood in front of imperialists and said ABSOLUTELY NOT.

Did you have the strength (to say this)?

With respect, Former Prime Minister and Leaders of the Opposition, Mr. Chairman, there was a time when the world saw that American boots came here, the Abbottabad operation took place. And there is this time, when they are making plans that if Imran Khan's government does not fall, things will get tough for Pakistan, and they also say that if Imran Khan's government does fall, and the vote of no-confidence is successful, then we will forgive Pakistan.

Mr. Chairman, sitting under the 99 names of Allah SWT, in the month of Ramadan, we are entitled to forgiveness from Allah alone, we are not to seek forgiveness from America. Yet you win today, we will bear this with grace.

But listen to me,

Let's walk silently so that no one is awakened

For it is the preferred style of slavery

If a Nation cannot be united on the truth

The punishment of that nation is indeed their ruler

(Faiz Ahmad Faiz)

I am proud that my leader stood firm, he didn't bow down, he didn't sell himself, he wasn't scared, he stood strong till the last ball. And how will you even compete against Imran Khan, when one of his soldiers is standing among you all by the mercy of Allah سُبْحَانَهُ وَتَعَالَى.

Finally, I would like to say, Mr. Chairman, my prayer is that my country, my Pakistan will continue to move forward, my prayer is that we will continue to strengthen Pakistan together, but In Sha Allah, my Allah says:

وَقُلْ جَاءَ الْحَقُّ وَزَهَقَ الْبَاطِلُ ۚ إِنَّ الْبَاطِلَ كَانَ زَهُوقًا (17:83)

”And say, “Truth has come and falsehood has vanished. Falsehood is surely bound to vanish”

Soon Imran Khan will be in this same chair, by the power of the people, In Sha Allah, with a two-thirds majority.

And In Sha Allah, my congratulations to Imran Khan, and to Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf, and to my millions of Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf voters and workers and supporters, congratulations on your defiance, and your boldness and your resistance.

Even today there are some people in Pakistan who are standing in front of imperialism, who are standing in front of America, who are standing in front of the Jews.
